

Looking to boost your study skills?

However you prefer to learn, we offer a range of sessions to develop your academic skills:

Workshops

Interactive workshops on all topics, offering practical tips and strategies to improve your study skills.

Forums

Discuss work-in-progress in a small group, get feedback and consider strategies to develop your work.

Quick Query Drop-ins

For quick questions, our advisors run drop-ins (up to 15 mins) at both campuses. Check our website for details.

Referencing workshops

Getting started with APA referencing

A 30 minute workshop to help you get started with APA referencing and ask any questions you have about APA.

Getting started with ProQuest RefWorks

Learn how to use ProQuest RefWorks software to create citations and reference lists.

1-1s

Thirty minute 1-1s for when you're not sure where to start or if group sessions aren't for you. Our advisors can work with you to identify and develop your skills, and to be confident and independent in your academic work.

Working off campus

Develop your skills from home, work or whilst travelling with webinars, phone call 1-1s, and a wide range of online study guides and resources.

Online: blogs.shu.ac.uk/skillscentre

Email: skillscentre@shu.ac.uk

In person: See our website for drop-in times

Twitter: @HallamSkills

Academic Writing

Introduction to Academic Writing

Learn about structure, style, critical arguments and using research in your writing.

Planning and Structuring your Assignments

Learn how to understanding essay questions and develop tools for planning and structuring successful assignments.

Critical Writing

An introduction to the key aspects of being critical and how to transform descriptive writing into critical essays.

Advanced Critical Writing: Analysis and Evaluation

Expand your knowledge of critical writing, analysing and evaluating evidence and effective paragraph structure.

Reflective Writing

An introduction to the key principles and frameworks for reflective writing.

Literature Reviews

A practical guide to planning and writing a literature review.

Editing and Proofreading

Identify common mistakes and develop strategies to improve your writing accuracy.

Effective study

Planning for Academic Success

Manage your studies and organise your time effectively.

Making the Most of Lectures

Develop effective notetaking strategies and learn how to apply this knowledge to your studies.

Effective reading strategies

Practical strategies for evaluating sources, taking effective notes and integrating evidence into your writing.

Presentation skills

Plan and present with confidence.

Exam Revision and Strategy

Develop effective revision strategies and prepare for a range of different exam question formats.

Research skills

Planning your research

Learn about the essential stages in planning research, including research questions, methodologies and ethics.

Writing up your research

A step-by-step guide to structuring and writing a successful dissertation or extended project.

Not sure where to start? Take the new SkillsCheck to get personalised recommendations on how to build your academic skills. Visit our website to get started.

Academic Writing

Introduction to Academic Writing

Learn about structure, style, critical arguments and using research in your writing.

Planning and Structuring your Assignments

Learn how to understanding essay questions and develop tools for planning and structuring successful assignments.

Critical Writing

An introduction to the key aspects of being critical and how to transform descriptive writing into critical essays.

Advanced Critical Writing: Analysis and Evaluation

Expand your knowledge of critical writing, analysing and evaluating evidence and effective paragraph structure.

Reflective Writing

An introduction to the key principles and frameworks for reflective writing.

Literature Reviews

A practical guide to planning and writing a literature review.

Editing and Proofreading

Identify common mistakes and develop strategies to improve your writing accuracy.

Effective study

Planning for Academic Success

Manage your studies and organise your time effectively.

Making the Most of Lectures

Develop effective notetaking strategies and learn how to apply this knowledge to your studies.

Effective reading strategies

Practical strategies for evaluating sources, taking effective notes and integrating evidence into your writing.

Presentation skills

Plan and present with confidence.

Exam Revision and Strategy

Develop effective revision strategies and prepare for a range of different exam question formats.

Research skills

Planning your research

Learn about the essential stages in planning research, including research questions, methodologies and ethics.

Writing up your research

A step-by-step guide to structuring and writing a successful dissertation or extended project.

Not sure where to start? Take the new SkillsCheck to get personalised recommendations on how to build your academic skills. Visit our website to get started.

Sheffield
Hallam
University

theskillscentre
SKILLS FOR LEARNING AND LIFE

For more resources and support, visit:
blogs.shu.ac.uk/skillscentre

Looking to boost your study skills?

However you prefer to learn, we offer a range of sessions to develop your academic skills:

Workshops

Interactive workshops on all topics, offering practical tips and strategies to improve your study skills.

Forums

Discuss work-in-progress in a small group, get feedback and consider strategies to develop your work.

Quick Query Drop-ins

For quick questions, our advisors run drop-ins (15 mins) in buildings at both campuses. Check our website for details.

1-1s

Thirty minute 1-1s for when you're not sure where to start or if group sessions aren't for you. Our advisors can work with you to identify and develop your skills, and to be confident and independent in your academic work.

Working off campus

Develop your skills from home, work or whilst travelling with webinars, phone call 1-1s, and a wide range of online study guides and resources.

Referencing workshops

Getting started with APA referencing

A 30 minute workshop to help you get started with APA referencing and ask any questions you have about APA.

Getting started with ProQuest RefWorks

Learn how to use ProQuest RefWorks software to create citations and reference lists.

Online: blogs.shu.ac.uk/skillscentre

Email: skillscentre@shu.ac.uk

In person: See our website for drop-in times

Twitter: @HallamSkills