

2016 Three Minute Thesis Competition Final and Doctoral Question Time

Wednesday 22 June, 1430-1630, Hallam View, City Campus

Name	Title	Subject area
Francis Awolowo	Financial Statement Fraud: The need for a Paradigm Shift to Forensic Accounting	SBS
Ian Ellison	Contemporary knowledge work spaces: a Lefebvrian case study exploring provider and user perspectives	SBS
Rosa Greasley	Exercise and anabolic agents to improve outcomes in advanced prostate cancer	CSES
Rebecca Hodgson	Teaching the academic to teach: discourses of professionalization, regulation, and excellence	SloE
Ronak Janani	Development of novel organic-inorganic electrolytes for energy storage applications	MERI
Ciarán McInerney	Using genomic selection methods in sports performance analysis	CSER
Mootaz Salman	The mechanism of aquaporin translocation and expression in cerebral pathologies	BMRC
Richard Telling	" Keeping it in the family ": Next generation involvement among Italian family-owned restaurants	SBS

Doctoral Question Time

The presentations will be followed by a discussion session on researchers and social media, with advice and reflections from SHU staff. Join us to hear about the approaches that SHU researchers have taken, and put your questions to our panel:

Dr Tom Bassindale, Senior Lecturer in forensic and analytical science.

<http://www.weareforensic.co.uk/> @WeAreForensic

Dr Luke Beardon, Senior Lecturer in autism.

<https://blogs.shu.ac.uk/autism/> and <https://theautismcentre.wordpress.com/> @sheffieldluke

Sue Beckingham, Senior Lecturer in information systems and educational developer.

@suebecks

Dr Erica Brown, Research Fellow for the Readerships and Literary Cultures 1900-1950 Special Collection. <http://reading19001950.wordpress.com/>

Refreshments

Three Minute Thesis final - Judges' verdict