

How can we spread 'carbon literacy' in Sheffield's universities and beyond?

An introduction to Manchester's Carbon Literacy Project, followed by a public discussion about the way forward in Sheffield

Thursday, October 17th, 19.30 - 21.30

Open to all

Speaker:

Rachel Dunk, Principal Lecturer in Environmental Management and Sustainable Development at Manchester Metropolitan University/ Lead 'Carbon Literacy' trainer.

Panel:

Clr Mark Jones, Cabinet Member for Environment, Streetscene and Climate Change, Sheffield City Council.

Dr Rachael Rothman, Associate Director of the Grantham Centre for Sustainable Futures and Academic Lead for Sustainability, University of Sheffield.

Mark Swales, Chief Estates and Facilities Officer, Sheffield Hallam University.

Venue: Lecture Theatre 5 in the Diamond Building, University of Sheffield, 32 Leavygreave Rd, Sheffield S3 7RD (just off West Street.)

Tickets: Attendance is free but to ensure a place, please reserve through EventBrite. Search for: How can we spread 'carbon literacy' in Sheffield's universities and beyond?

Organised by Climate Communications Hub
In partnership with Carbon Neutral University and Sheffield Climate Alliance