UNIVERSITY FOR FOREIGNERS OF PERUGIA AMBASSADOR OF ITALY IN THE WORLD

The University for Foreigners of Perugia is the oldest and most prestigious Italian institution specialised in teaching, research and promotion of all expressions of Italian language and culture.

It was founded in the early 1920s and, since the very beginning, has always been a symbol of openness and tolerance, as well as a meeting place for different cultures and peoples, developing into what has become a real workshop of intercultural education.

Its exclusive identity is represented by a specialised vocation in teaching Italian to foreigners and all of the expressions, for which it acts as a vehicle, such as art, music, theatre, literature and the economic and industrial system.

The university's mission is to contribute to the promotion of Italian language and culture worldwide and to favour the knowledge of diversity. In the early 1990s, the University was reorganised.

As well as Italian language and culture courses, there are Degree courses, Master's Degree Courses, Specialisation courses and PhD courses active at the University.
