

Objectives for Course Representative Induction Training

Aims/Objectives:

1. A Course Rep who understands the scope of the role, what it entails and the potential for further involvement.
2. A Course Rep who feels supported and knows how to access avenues for advice, training and general help.
3. A Course Rep who is equipped with resources (NSS Results, PTES, PRES External Examiner reports, UniStats, Student Charter etc.) and the ability to use these resources to make suggestions for change/improvement.
4. A Course Rep who is equipped with the skills to collect feedback and present it effectively to staff and students.
5. A Course Rep who is aware of the Student Charter and feels part of an open dialogue/partnership with members of academic staff
6. A Course rep who can see the value and importance to their role and to being a part of the Student Rep system.
7. A Course Rep who is able to work with staff and other representatives to foster a sense of community on their course.